

A Constitutional Democracy-Voices and Votes
Written By Edward Delon

Review Thoughts:

As we live in the technology world of the 21 century, a global society with endless information and news available any where and any time, I still find myself amazed by the lack of knowledge and understanding that many of my colleagues and fellow citizens have about our Nation's foundational freedom that our forefathers bestowed upon us with "A Constitutional Democracy".

This is why I highly recommend Mr. Delon's book, "A Constitutional Democracy"-Voices and Votes. to everyone of all ages to read, study and use as a reference guide to have a greater understanding of the privilege we have as American citizens to live in a Nation of great Liberty and Freedom.

Growing up in our Nation's Capital, I thought I was well versed with the foundational history of our government, yet while reading through "A Constitutional Democracy", I found that there is so much more that I would like to learn.

Mr. Delon in his book provides the reader with much information and resources on the various aspects of the working of our government. His chapters cover many of today's "hot political" topics such as "Civics and Politics", "Immigration and Migration", "Energy Issues" and more. After reading the book for the first time, I realized that Mr. Delon wanted to share his passion for historic knowledge, to give us, the reader, the American citizen, a "Voice" and a reminder, or better said, an encouragement to understand the Freedom we have in this Nation with the simple act of "Voting" for what we believe in. Yet, we must choose to grow our knowledge and understanding of the foundation of our Nation, to better enable us to "Vote" for our beliefs today, to continue to foster the many Freedoms of our Nation for the future.

Thank you Mr. Delon for your wonderful book, "A Constitutional Democracy". Your book has empowered me to expand my knowledge as an American citizen. A must read for All !

Ssusan Forte O'Neill
President and Founder, Forte Designs
Co-Founder, The Technolink Assocation
February 5, 2016